From US 10, turn south at the blinker in Walhalla. Take a left at Kinney (following the main route) and this becomes 56th St. Travel about 8 miles to the corner of Evergreen. Continue "straight" (the road takes a little twist) and the trailhead is in about one more mile on the left (north) side of the road as you begin downhill. Do NOT go all the way to Bowman Bridge Campground!

From Baldwin, go west out of town on Lake St. till it turns into 52nd St. It will jog a bit and become 56th St. 4 miles from town you will cross Bowman Bridge, and the turn to the Campsite. Continue one more mile, and the Trailhead is on the right (north) side of the road as you begin uphill.

Question 6. How many tent pads are there around the lake?

The NCT extends from New York to North Dakota! Minimum distance required to get the answer to the question about 1 mile. There is a $3/day or $20/year fee to park at Trailheads in the Manistee National Forest. There is a self-pay station at the Freesoil Trailhead. Free paper maps of the NCT throughout the entire Manistee National Forest are available at Manistee or Baldwin Ranger stations.
